

SE Region Model Railroad S Scale Coffee

December 14, 15 & 16

Johnson City, Tennessee

This free event is hosted by the Model Train Center and East Tennessee State University's George L. Carter Museum. It is open to any S scale or 1/64 modeler and includes a museum visit, discussion session, clinics, vendors, a railfan tour and a Doe River Gorge Camp ET&WNC excursion on Sunday.

Verbal reservations are required. Contact Gary Cameron (423/929-3667) and leave name, mailing address and phone number. ET&WNC excursion requires advance reservation and payment ($10.00/person).

Event Activity Schedule as of 11/22/07:

12/14/07 Meet and greet. Location in JC to be determined by number arriving on Friday.

12/15/07	9:00 AM	George L. Carter Museum Visit
	10:00 AM	Discussion. Room 312, Brown Hall. Goals, thoughts, future.
	11:15 AM	Clinic - Trees - Dean Odiorne
	11:30 AM	Swap & Shop, Vendors, Lunch Break (pack a lunch or go to nearby fast food establishments).
	12:50 PM	Door Prize Drawing. Room 312. You must have verbally pre-registered for coffee (no charge) to win.
	1:00 PM	Presentation - Railroads in Johnson City - Johnny Graybeal
	1:40 PM	Short Clinic - Using LED Christmas lights. John Edwards
	1:50 PM	Local JC History - Alan Bridwell
	2:40 PM	Local Railfan Tour - ET&WNC and Clinchfield depot buildings, other local sites as time permits.

12/16/07 1:30 PM Doe River Gorge Camp excursion on ET&WNC narrow gauge line (If the rockslide has been cleared).

Notes: Future, separate events will be held in 2008 for American Flyer, O, N & HO. Your comments and input at any time on this event would be appreciated. We might want to do something like this for S Scalpers semi-annually or more frequently hosted in Johnson City, Oak Ridge and other areas in the SE.

East Tennessee State University's George L. Carter Museum is now open to the public from 10am to 3pm on Saturdays.